Hon'ble P.C. Verma, J.

The grievance of the petitioner is that the pension papers of her late husband are not being forwarded and she is being deprived form the family pension.

Accordingly to the learned Chief Standing counsel, the pension papers of petitioner's husband has been forwarded and pension has been sanctioned by the joint Director, Education. Now the petitioner may approach the joint Director, Education and called the papers relating to payment of pension of her husband or family pension.

In view of above, the petition is disposed of finally.
